

Artificial Insemination Hands-On Workshop

THURSDAY, SEPT. 7

3:00 PM–8:00 PM. PREREGISTER TO ATTEND

ISU ALLEE EXPERIMENTAL FARM

2030 640th St., Newell

Instructors Eric Rupnow & Dave Stender, ISU Extension.

- Using AI in alternative systems
- Heat detection
- Gilt pool management
- Quality & timing of mating
- Keeping semen alive
- AI technique (hands-on)
- Equipment

There is no charge for this Practical Farmers of Iowa workshop, but you must register ahead for the hands-on portion; capacity is limited. Contact Ronda Driskill, (515) 294-8512, misselly@iastate.edu by Tues., Sept. 5.

Note: Please wear freshly laundered work clothes and clean shoes that have not been near a swine operation recently, and do not return to your own herd before showering and changing.

LIGHT SUPPER SERVED

Directions: From west edge of Newell, go 1 mile south on gravel, ¼ mile east. South side of road. This workshop is supported by the Research Alliance for Farrowing, a USDA SARE project

